LINCOLNIANA

THE PRESENT CATALOGUE CONTAINS UNDOUBTEDLY THE LARGEST AND FINEST COLLECTION OF LINCOLNIANA EVER OFFERED FOR SALE BY ANY AMERICAN BOOKSELLER, AND COMPRISES MANY UNIQUE PIECES WHICH CAN NEVER OCCUR FOR SALE AGAIN.

AMONGST THEM ARE MANY EXCEEDINGLY RARE BOOKS AND PAMPHLETS ISSUED DURING LINCOLN'S LIFE TIME. THEY ONLY APPEARED IN VERY SMALL EDITIONS AND BY FAR THE GREATEST NUMBER OF COPIES WHICH NOW SURVIVE, HAVE BEEN ABSORBED INTO THE COLLECTIONS OF THE GREAT PUBLIC LIBRARIES AND MANY OTHER PUBLIC INSTITUTIONS OF AMERICA.

THE LINCOLN LETTERS AND AUTOGRAPH DOCUMENTS HERE DESCRIBED ARE ALL OF PARTICULAR VALUE AND INTEREST. THEY HAVE ALWAYS BEEN SCARCE, AND AFTER THE VERY ASSIDUOUS SEARCH THAT HAS BEEN MADE FOR THEM BY COLLECTORS DURING THE LAST FIFTY YEARS IT IS BARELY POSSIBLE THAT ANY MORE OF LINCOLN'S WRITINGS OF IMPORTANCE CAN NOW COME TO LIGHT.

THE NUMBER OF TRIBUTES TO LINCOLN'S GENIUS AND PERSONALITY PRONOUNCED AND WRITTEN BY HIS CONTEMPORARIES AND THE MOST PROMINENT MEN OF THE 19TH CENTURY IS EXTREMELY LARGE AND COMPREHENSIVE.

BOOKS DEVOTED TO ACCOUNTS OF LINCOLN'S DEATH, THE PURSUIT, ARREST AND TRIALS OF THE CONSPIRATORS ARE HERE ALSO VERY COMPLETELY REPRESENTED.

OF SUPREME IMPORTANCE ALSO ARE THE TWO BEAUTIFUL LIFE SIZE PORTRAITS, ONE IN CRAYONS AND THE OTHER IN OILS, OF THE MARTYR PRESIDENT.

"The Lincoln Cult is only in its Infancy. It has had but a single generation in which to grow but as the Perspective of Time brings into Grandeur Relief the Noble proportions of its Subject, Homage and Admiration for him will be bounded only by the Civilized World."

O 82. BEAUREGARD, GENERAL. Extremely Interesting A. L. S., written whilst in Command of the Department of Alexandria, Va., to Brig. Gen. Samuel Cooper at Richmand, reporting the Capture of some Federal prisoners: "General. The Bearer Col. Chisolm is in charge of four prisoners taken in Fairfax County from the Enemy, and a certain Dr. John Richards of Washington who arrived here this morning on the plea of meeting herewith his son, at school in Charlottesville—but more probably for the purpose of obtaining all the information he could relative to our position and forces, to communicate to his friend, Mr. LINCOLN, whose family physician I am informed he is—I would respectfully advise that he should be kept a prisoner until after the war—for by the enclosed papers, it will be seen that his sympathies appear to be entirely with our enemies." 4to, Manassass Junction. June 11, 1861. $50.00

An unusually Early Beauregard Civil War Letter written two months to the day after his demand for the Surrender of Fort Sumter and within four months of his Resignation as Superintendent of West Point.

Contains a very gloomy description of Affairs at Richmond. Of the North he writes "Washington was gay, in the meantime, not with thoughtlessness, but with Exultations over the Prospects of war, and the promises of its Government. Balls "diamond" weddings, Presidential Levees, Social Parties, with splendid arrays of Silks and Jewels, with all the Phantasy of Wealth, the Insolence of Licentiousness, and the fashionable commerce of Lust, amused the hours. Mr. Lincoln was jocose again. He snapped his fingers at the "Rebellion." He attended the Theatre nightly. This piece of human Jacquerie chattered incessantly over the success of his Schemes," etc.

A RARE CONFEDERATE CHRONICLE.

258. CONFEDERATE DIARY of the War for Separation. Being a Daily Chronicle of Events and History of the Present Revolution from the Inauguration of Abraham Lincoln to the Battle of Shiloh. Containing full and Minute Statements of all the Battles, Skirmishes and Engagements, Dates of Secession, Lists of Killed and wounded, number of Forces engaged, Biographical Sketches of Confederate Generals, Remarkable Events, etc. Edited by H. C. CLARKE. 8vo, half red roan. Vicksburg. 1862. $50.00

"Nov. 6, 1860. Abraham Lincoln and Hannibal Hamlin were elected by a Sectional Vote of the United States. They received every Northern vote excepting three cast in New Jersey. No votes were cast for them in the South."

"Feb. 13, 1861. In the Federal Congress the Electoral votes were counted and Lincoln and Hamlin were decided duly elected. The Ceremony was brief and very dull. The Lincolnites had pretended to fear a violent outbreak, and Gen. Scott had made disposition of the imposing Military Forces of his command. There was not the slightest demonstration of Hostility."

"Feb. 22. Lincoln raises a Flag of 34 stars in Independence Square and 'Puts his foot down firmly' for 'universal Freedom and Equality.'"

"Feb. 23. Lincoln passed through Baltimore incognito on his way in a hurry to Washington. He had mysteriously left Harrisburg by night by a special train, and was disguised by wearing a 'Scotch plaid cap and a very long Military Cloak.' The cause of this strange night journey of Lincoln's has never been clearly explained. His partisans tried to make it appear that there was a plot to take his Life. His exit from the Federal Capital, it is very probable will be as undignified as his entrance into it."

"March 4. Inauguration of Prest. Lincoln took place in Washington. It differed from all former inaugurations in this, that a large Body of Military under some pretext, was concentrated in Washington under orders for active Service. It was the Inauguration of a President whose Authority was totally repudiated by seven of the Once United States, and was fast waning in several others." etc., etc.

One of the most violent denunciations of the Lincoln Murderers contained in any Lincoln Sermon of the Times. Concludes with a fierce onslaught upon the Stage: "Would that he had fallen elsewhere than at the very gates of Hell—in the Theatre, to which through persuasion, he so reluctantly went. But, thus a stain has been put upon that so falsely called school of Virtue. How awful and severe the rebuke, which God has administered to the Nation, for pampering such demoralizing places of resort. The Blood of Abraham Lincoln can never be effaced from the Stage. God grant that it may prove the brand of Infamy consigning the Theatre, which even Solon and the old moral Greeks abhorred, to the disgrace it merits, and the abhorrence of this nation." With Author's Presentation Inscription on fore-cover.

586. LINCOLN. Adjutant Stearns. A Memoir by his Father. Engraved portrait of Adjutant Stearns. 12mo, original cloth. Boston. 1862. $100.00

A memoir of Frazer A. Stearns, written by his father and possessing much pathetic interest. Formerly in Lincoln's Library, and presented to him by a friend, as the following manuscript inscription on the first fly-leaf attests:

"Presented to His Excellency, Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States, with the kind regards of His humble Friend, M. J. Gonsalus, Hospital Chaplain U. S. Army, Washington, D. C. Aug. 15th, 1863."

The subject of this memoir was the son of President Stearns of Amherst College. The little volume is composed of letters written by him to his father, picturesquely describing details of the Civil War, and of tributes to his memory. It contains several references to Lincoln.

587. LINCOLN. The Character of Abraham Lincoln and the Constitutionality of his Emancipation Policy. 8vo, half brown morocco gilt. No place or date but about 1863. $6.50

Lossing the Historian thanking him for his Pamphlet on "The League of the States": "We shall never be a strong, united and respected Nation, until this miserable doctrine of State Rights as paramount with union obligations, is destroyed. When shall you begin to print your work on the Rebellion. I am glad to know that you have had the Emancipation Proclamation photographed for the purpose of engraving it in facsimile. The President sent me the PEN with which he signed the Charter of Freedom. I value it exceedingly. I hope sometime to show it you in my new Library. Surely now if never before it may be said "THE PEN IS MIGHTIER THAN THE SWORD." National Affairs are looking much better. Our Country is to come out of her Trial purified and disenthralled and she will be a name and a power in the Earth such as never before was dreamed of. Let us thank God and take Courage." 3 pages. Boston. March 31, 1863. $20.00

661. LIVERMORE, GEORGE. Interesting A. L. S. to Benson J. Lossing regarding the pen used by Lincoln in signing the Emancipation Proclamation. "I send you a pencil drawing and a photograph of the Proclamation Pen. It is a common steel pen with a common cedar handle. Not so picturesque as a goose quill but plain as the President who gave it its value by using it for so noble a purpose." 12mo, Boston. April 22, 1864. $10.00

With the letter is a duplicate of the holder and pen which Lossing procured after seeing the Originals. The pen has a tiny Head of Washington on it.

667. LOSSING, BENSON J. The Noted Historian. Original Manuscript Diary kept by Lossing in Richmond after its Capture. One of the earliest Entries in the Journal reads "April 15. Awakened by a Friend between 4 and 5 o'clock with the horrible news of the Assassination of the President. This City is in great excitement. The President died at 7.22." Further on he describes an interview between General Wallace and President Lincoln on the Mexican question—"The object is to drive the French and Maximilian from the Country. Wallace proposed the matter to the President. He liked the idea but said go to Grant. Grant approved and said so in a letter. In a private interview with the president the latter said I suppose it is right we should help the oppressed. But, he said, 'Young Man do you know what you are asking. It is to involve us in War perhaps with all Europe.' He threw himself on the Sofa ran his fingers through his hair for some minutes in much agitation. He said 'this is the Argument of the thing, don't get caught. Go to Seward and Senator Lane. He did not. He received proper instructions from Grant and went away from the Texan Border with his Staff. He is now here to report to Grant and do what may be done to aid Mexico" etc. Written on 25 pages. 12mo, original stiff paper wrappers. Richmond. April, 1865. $100.00

First Edition. Contains the first publication of Lowell's "The President's Policy," printed later in pamphlet form. Inserted is a typewritten copy of a letter by Lincoln relating to a passage he would like changed. "Gentlemen. The Num- ber for this month was duly received for which please accept my thanks. Of course I am not the most impartial judge; yet with due allowance for this, I venture to hope that the Article entitled the 'President's Policy' will be of value to the Country. I fear I am not quite worthy of all which is therein kindly said of me personally. The Sentence of 12 lines commencing at the top of page 252, I could wish to be not exactly as it is. In what is there expressed, the writer has not correctly understood me. I have never had a theory that Secession could absolve States or People from their obligations. Precisely the Contrary is asserted in the Inaugural Address; and it was because of my belief in the continuation of those OBLIGATIONS, that I was puzzled, for a time as to denying the legal Rights of those Citizens who remained individually innocent of Treason or Rebellion. But I mean no more now than to merely call attention to this point. Yours respectfully A. Lincoln." Washington Jan 16, 1864.

670. LOWELL, JAMES RUSSELL. The President's Policy. The Original Article as it appeared in the January Number of the North American Review. 8vo, full brown morocco, uncut, original wrappers bound in. Boston. 1864. $10.00

FINE AUTOGRAPH OF THE FIRST LINCOLN PARTNERSHIP.

681. LINCOLN AUTOGRAPH. Answer of Thomas Cassidy, defendant to the bill of complaint of Joseph C. Foster. 6 pages, 4to. Springfield, 1837. $350.00

The statement is entirely in Lincoln's hand and signed by Thomas Cassidy in addition to the firm signature of STUART AND LINCOLN. Documents executed during Lincoln's first partnership are more desirable than those of his later associations and very much rarer on account of the scarcity of their cases and their struggle for recognition at the bar. The Document shows the suit to have been an exceptionally complicated Land Case even for the Illinois Courts, and it is also of exceptional interest as having incorporated in it one of the "Jokes," (perhaps the First and only Legal Lincoln paper to do so) that "Uncle Abe" later on became world famous for. According to both Lamon and Herndon, Lincoln actually wrote but a very small Number of Legal Papers.

682. LINCOLN AUTOGRAPH. Document entirely in the Autograph of Lincoln, signed by Mary and Richard Anderson, in relation to an Estate. 4to. May 26th, 1837. $250.00

"Whereas Stephen T. Logan, John T. Stuart and A. Lincoln have engaged to prosecute the said suit as attorneys for the said heirs, we, the subscribers, being the widow and one of the sons of the said Anderson deceased, agree to give to the said Logan, Stuart and Lincoln one-half of the said piece of ground for their services, provided they recover the ground; but are not bound to pay anything unless the said piece of ground be recovered."

One of the most sensational of Lincoln's First Law Cases. According to the Account of it in Nicolay and Hay's Works (pages 57-64) charges of Fraud and Forgery were unsparingly brought against Lincoln and his Partners by Gen. Adams the defendant in the suit.

683. LINCOLN AUTOGRAPH. Precipe and Bond in the Case of Albert G. Williams against John M. and George L. Cabaniss. Both entirely in Lincoln's writing. The First signed by him "Stuart and Lincoln" and the Bond signed "A. Lincoln." In this he entered himself Security for all Costs in the Case and engaged to pay same to the opposite party or the Officers of the Court. On one page 4to. Sangamon Circuit, 1838. $100.00

684. LINCOLN AUTOGRAPH. Affidavit entirely in Lincoln's writing in the case of Benjamin Lockwood against William H. Wernway for debts. 14 lines, 4to. Sangamon Co., 1839. $50.00

A rather Early Lincoln Legal Document.

RARE "STUART AND LINCOLN" AUTOGRAPH.

685. LINCOLN AUTOGRAPH. Brief in Lincoln's autograph throughout, in the suit of John Kerr and Augustus Kerr, Plaintiffs, David Prickett, Defendant, to recover $2,661.77 upon Promissory Notes. Signed "STUART & LINCOLN." 2 pages. Folio. Sangamon Circuit Court, 1839. $125.00

The Copy of the Note which was incorporated by Lincoln in his Complaint shows that it was dated May 1st, 1837, and payable one day after date.

686. LINCOLN AUTOGRAPH. Bill in Chancery. The Suit of Richard D. Wood, John Yarrow, Horatio C. Wood, James Abbott and Josiah Bacon vs. Emery C. Ross. The document is entirely in Lincoln's autograph, with the exception of the signature of N. A. Rankin, guarantor. Lincoln has signed the Deed "Stuart and Lincoln Complainant's Solicitors." 2 full page folios. Sangamon County Circuit Court, 1839. $150.00

Like all the Early Stuart and Lincoln Papers of extreme Rarity. A specially desirable specimen.

687. LINCOLN AUTOGRAPH. Brief in the case of James Ditson against Logan McMurry to recover the sum of $100.00 due on a promissory note given by the latter and payable "ONE DAY after date with twelve per cent interest from date until paid." Finely written throughout in Lincoln's Hand and signed by him "Stuart and Lincoln." 2 pages. Folio. Sangamon County Circuit Court, 1840. $75.00

An exceptionally fine Specimen of the Autograph of the First Lincoln Law Firm.

VERY FINE "LOGAN AND LINCOLN" AUTOGRAPH.

688. LINCOLN AUTOGRAPH. Brief in the case of Robert Allen against Cyrus G. Saunders for the failure to pay $4,000, the sum of indebtedness of Saunders to Allen for the lease of the Globe Hotel in Springfield. The document is signed "LOGAN AND LINCOLN" and entirely in the latter's autograph. 2 full pages. 4to. Sangamon Circuit Court, 1843. $150.00

Of special Lincoln interest on account of his Association with the Globe Hotel.

In a letter quoted in Nicolay and Hay's Life, Lincoln writing to Joshua F. Speed on May, 1843, says, "We are not keeping house, but boarding at the Globe Tavern, which is very well kept now by a Widow Lady of the name of Beck. Our Room and Boarding only costs us four dollars a week," etc., etc.

689. LINCOLN AUTOGRAPH. Legal Document Signed Entirely in Lincoln's Autograph and signed twice "Logan and Lincoln." Writ and Replevin in the case of David Spear against Thomas Lowry. In all 40 lines in Lincoln's writing. 2 pages. Folio. Sangamon County, Illinois, 1843. $125.00

Fine "Lincoln and Logan" Autograph.

690. LINCOLN AUTOGRAPH. Autograph agreement in Lincoln's handwriting signed "Logan and Lincoln." Written on the back of an order from one of their Clients reading "Logan and Lincoln. Dear Sirs. Please pay to James Burtle out of the proceeds of a Judgment obtained by me against John C. Cloyd, the amount of his account against me and this shall be your sufficient warrant. Thomas Clements, Springfield, March 19, 1845." On back of this Lincoln has written "We accept the within on condition that Burtle's Account is not to exceed Ten Dollars, and agree to pay accordingly, when the amount of the judgment comes to our hands. Logan and Lincoln, March 19th, 1845." Underneath this Lincoln has written in pencil "The Clerk will please pay Mr. Burtle Ten Dollars out of the Judgment Clement vs. Cloyd and take in and file this order Logan and Lincoln." 2 pages. 8vo. Springfield, 1845. $100.00

Very fine "Logan and Lincoln" Specimen.

VERY FINE LINCOLN AND HERNDON AUTOGRAPH.

691. LINCOLN AUTOGRAPH. Praeipice and Affidavit entirely in Lincoln's handwriting, in the petition for Division of the Real Estate of Samuel Little, deceased: "ABRAHAM LINCOLN being first duly sworn, states on oath that a petition is intended to be filed in the Circuit Court of the County aforesaid, at its next term, by the parties and for the object above indicated; and that as affiant is informed and believes, the residence of the said defendants Phoebe Jane Basford and Samuel Basford is unknown to said petitioners, and that they can not on reasonable diligence be found. A. Lincoln." The Summons at end of Document also in Lincoln's handwriting is signed by him LINCOLN AND HERNDON. Folio. Sangamon County, 1847. $200.00

An unusual Lincoln Autograph in which he signs twice as "Abraham Lincoln" once as "A. Lincoln" and once as "Lincoln and Herndon."

692. LINCOLN AUTOGRAPH. Affidavit of Thomas Johnson the Plaintiff in a suit against Thomas B. Wickham to recover payment for work and labor done for him. Asks the Court to postpone the case till next term in order that Plaintiff might produce his only Witness. At end is the acknowledgment of the affidavit by Judge David Davis, Lincoln's Friend and Executor. 2 pp. Folio. Sangamon County, 1854. $75.00

Very fine Specimen.

UNIQUE LINCOLN-HAY ASSOCIATION ITEM.

693. LINCOLN AUTOGRAPH. Printed Indenture between NATHANIEL HAY of Sangamon Co. and MARIA L. BULLOCK of Fayette Co., Kentucky, conveying 27 Acres of Land in Sangamon Co. With over 30 lines filled in in Lincoln's handwriting, and also a 3 line receipt signed "A. Lincoln." Large folio. Sangamon Co., Illinois, June 25, 1855. $175.00

To Secure a Mortgage of $970.32 on the property two notes were executed by Nathaniel Hay and his son JOHN HAY. Receipt for the payment of the Notes is recorded by Lincoln on the Margin of the Deed. John Hay after graduating from Brown studied Law at Springfield and accompanied Lincoln to Washington in 1861, as his Private Secretary.

OLD SPRINGFIELD SCANDALS.

694. LINCOLN AUTOGRAPH. Bill of Exceptions in the Case of Richardson and Hopkins vs. Joel Johnson. In Lincoln's writing throughout. 7 pages. Folio. (Springfield about 1855.) $350.00

A very interesting Narrative intimately associated with Lincoln's Home Town. He appeared in the interest of Joel Johnson the Landlord of the "City Hotel," Springfield. Lincoln very quaintly describes how two Wine Growers or Drummers of GREENE Co., Illinois, lodged at the City Hotel and deposited three thousand Dollars with the Landlord to keep in his Safe till the morning. They occupied the same room and carefully locked the door, and having some cash amounting to over Four hundred Dollars on hand, deposited them in the hind pocket of their "Pantaloon" which they hung over the back of a Chair for Safety. In the Morning the door was open and the money gone. Lincoln's Client was assessed by the Judge $286 damages and the Case was promptly appealed by his Counsel.

A splendid Lincoln Autograph containing over 200 lines.

UNIQUE ILLINOIS POLITICAL LETTER, 1856.

695. LINCOLN AUTOGRAPH. A. L. S. to Hon. J. M. Palmer. "Dear Sir: It is our judgment that whether you do or not finally stand as a Candidate for Congress, it is better for you to not to publicly decline for a while. It is a long time to the election, and what may turn up no one can tell. Yours truly A. Lincoln." Also signed by Richard Yates, W. H. Herndon (of the Law Firm of Herndon and Lincoln) and Wm. Jayne. 4to, half green morocco. Springfield, August 1st, 1856. $275.00

John McCauley Palmer was a presidential elector for Illinois in 1860 on the Republican ticket and a delegate to the Peace Convention at Washington Feb. 4, 1861. Served in the war with Generals Pope and Grant until Sept. 1864. He was elected Governor of Illinois in 1869 succeeding both Yates and Jayne in that Office. A most Remarkable Combination of Lincoln and Illinois names written when Lincoln was the First, Last and Only Choice of the Republican Party in that State.

THE RAREST OF THE LINCOLN LAW FIRM'S SIGNATURES.

696. LINCOLN AUTOGRAPH. Petition and Summons in the Case of Henri Hageman against Thomas Lewis. Entirely in the handwriting of Lincoln and signed by him in three places "McWILLIAMS AND LINCOLN" as Attorneys for the Defendant. 3 pages. Folio. Springfield (1855). $300.00

A Rather Scandalous Law suit regarding the Purchase of Lots in the JAMES ADAMS Addition to Springfield in which the defendant claimed he was cheated. Lincoln's engagements with Gen. James Adams and his land titles were numerous and highly spirited. THE AUTOGRAPH SIGNATURE OF Mc WILLIAMS AND LINCOLN SEEMS TO BE UNIQUE, THE PARTNERSHIP PROBABLY APPLYING TO THIS CASE ONLY. LINCOLN HAVING BEEN BROUGHT IN ON ACCOUNT OF HIS HOSTILITY TO THE ADAMS TITLES, WHICH AT THE TIME WAS A SUBJECT OF COMMON NOTORIETY.

697. LINCOLN AUTOGRAPH. Very long Autograph Brief entirely in Lincoln's writing, in the Case of THOMAS ASPINWALL against Thomas Lewis, Willis H. Johnson and John B. Moffatt trading as "Lewis Johnson and Co." 7 pages. Folio. In the Circuit Court of Sangamon County, Illinois, 1856. $350.00

An unusually fine document, written entirely by Lincoln and signed with the firm name "LINCOLN AND HERNDON." This is interesting considering that Lincoln was then the Senior partner and the work of preparing briefs was usually done by the younger member of the firm, or a clerk:

698. LINCOLN AUTOGRAPH. Brief in the suit of William J. Chamblin against the Springfield Marine and Fire Insurance Co. for the recovery of $10,000. Signed Twice with the firm name of LINCOLN AND HERNDON and by S. T. LOGAN, the opposing attorney and Lincoln's former partner. 2 pages. Folio. Sangamon County Court, 1857. $150.00

699. LINCOLN AUTOGRAPH. Reply of the Defendant in the Case of Frederick and Enwell Inguerson against William Tinney. All in Lincoln's writing and signed by him FOUR times as "Lincoln and Herndon." Together with a Line in S. T. Logan's writing "General Replication and joinder to all the Pleas Logan for Plaintiff." 2 full pages. Folio. Springfield about 1858. $175.00

A fine and long Autograph Document containing about 60 lines in Lincoln's Writing.

700. LINCOLN AUTOGRAPH. Commission of Cassius M. Clay of Kentucky as Minister Plenipotentiary of the United States to Spain. Signed "ABRAHAM LINCOLN" and countersigned by Secretary of State, William H. Seward. Folio with Seal. Washington, March 14, 1861. $35.00

Cassius M. Clay graduated at Yale in 1832 and although his parents were Slaveholders became one of the most thorough going Abolitionists of the Time. Issued the "True American" an extreme Anti-Slavery Journal which was frequently mobbed.

701. LINCOLN AUTOGRAPH. A. N. S. on card: "Will Gen. Totten please see Mr. Hitchcock. A. Lincoln, Dec. 31, 1861." $20.00

702. LINCOLN AUTOGRAPH. A. N. S. on Card: "Sec. of War Please see Mr. Ridgway. A. Lincoln, March 26, 1862." Endorsed by Secretary Stanton: "Referred to Genl. Totten." 1862. $22.50

703. LINCOLN. A. D. S. Good framing specimen. With printed biography by A. K. McClure. Executive Mansion, Washington, May 3, 1862. $150.00

"To day Mr. Senator Wright introduces a Committee of Citizens of this District, consisting of William Dixon, William Wisc, Henry Lee, Reuben Bacon, Henry D. Gunnell, W. J. Murtagh, James H. Lusby, who ask the appointment of George W. Garrett as Warden of Penitentiary. A. Lincoln."

A MOST REMARKABLE LINCOLN LETTER.

704. LINCOLN AUTOGRAPH. A highly important Historical Letter. Written at the most critical period of the Civil War by President Lincoln to Gen. N. P. Banks just after he had secretly entrusted him with the Command of a strong Expedition to New Orleans and had been assured by him that he was ready to start within the week. Lincoln's Remonstrance with him for his vacillation is couched in his most sardonic and ironic vein, although assuring him at the same time that he was not writing in an ill-natured spirit but quite the reverse, but concluding with the terse admonition that the mere publication of Banks' preposterous Requisition would be his utter Ruin in the estimation of the Public. L. S. 2 pages. 4to. Executive Mansion, Washington, Nov. 22, 1862. $500.00

"Executive Mansion Washington Nov. 22, 1862. My dear General Banks: Early last week you left me in high hope with your assurance that you would be off with your expedition at the end of that week, or early in this. It is now the end of this, and I have just been overwhelmed and confounded with the sight of a requisition made by you, which, I am assured, cannot be filled and got off with in an hour short of two months! I enclose you a copy of the requisition, in some hope that it is not genuine—that you have never seen it.

My dear General, this expanding, and piling up of impedimenta, has been so far, almost our ruin, and will be our final ruin, if it is not abandoned. If you had the articles of this requisition upon the wharf, with the necessary animals to make them of any use, and forage for the animals, you could not get vessels together in two weeks to carry the whole, to say nothing of your twenty thousand men; and, having the vessels, you could not put the cargoes aboard, in two weeks more. And after all, where you are going you have no use for them. When you parted with me, you had no such ideas in your mind—I know you had not, or you could not have expected to be off, so soon as you said. You must get back to something like the plan you had then, or your expedition is a failure before you start. You must be off before Congress meets. You would be better off any where, and especially where you are going, for not having a thousand wagons doing nothing but hauling forage to feed the animals that draw them and taking at least two thousand men to care for the wagons and animals who otherwise might be two thousand good soldiers.

NOW DEAR GENERAL, DO NOT THINK THIS IS AN ILL-NATURED LETTER IT IS THE VERY REVERSE. THE SIMPLE PUBLICATION OF THIS REQUISITION WOULD RUIN YOU. Very truly your friend, A. LINCOLN.

705. LINCOLN AUTOGRAPH. Interesting Letter signed from PRESIDENT LINCOLN to Joseph A. Gilmore, War Governor of New Hampshire, who at the time was actively engaged in raising New State Troops for the War. "My dear Governor Gilmore. I thank you very heartily for your kind invitation to visit Concord, and especially for the exceedingly cordial terms in which you have conveyed it. I very much regret that I cannot at present accept it. I am by no means certain that I can leave Washington at all this Summer. THE EXACTING NATURE OF MY OFFICIAL DUTIES RENDERS IT EXCEEDINGLY IMPROBABLE. I assure you however that I am none the less sincerely grateful for your kind intentions and for the expressions of personal good will contained in your letter. I am very truly yours, A. LINCOLN. 2 pages. 8vo. Executive Mansion, Washington, Aug. 7, 1863. $100.00

Fine and Characteristic Letter in the handwriting of Lincoln's Secretary John Hay.

706. LINCOLN AUTOGRAPH. Engraved Commission on vellum recognizing the Baron Charles von der Asten-Sacken as Consul General for Russia at New York. "I do hereby recognize him as such and declare him free to exercise and enjoy such functions, powers and privileges as are allowed to Consuls General by the Law of Nations or by the Laws of the United States and existing Treaty Stipulations between the Government of Russia and the United States." Signed in full ABRAHAM LINCOLN and countersigned by William H. Seward. Folio. Washington, 1864. $35.00

Consul General's Commission signed by Lincoln are rarely offered for sale.

707. LINCOLN AUTOGRAPH. Exequatur of GEORG H. GARLICKS of Cincinnati appointed Consul of the Grand Duchy of Saxe-Weimar Eisenach for the States of Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky and Tennessee. Signed ABRAHAM LINCOLN. 4to, with seal. Washington, Sept. 28, 1864. $35.00

707A. LINCOLN AUTOGRAPH. Signature in full ABRAHAM LINCOLN. On Vellum. About 1864. $20.00

707B. LINCOLN AUTOGRAPH. Engraved form directing the Secretary of State to affix the Seal of the United States to a Proclamation. Signed in full ABRAHAM LINCOLN. 4to. Washington. August, 1863. $35.00

Interesting Specimen undoubtedly referring to the President's Drafting Proclamation.

RARE AUTOGRAPHS OF MRS. LINCOLN.

708. LINCOLN, MRS. MARY. Wife of President Lincoln. A. L. S. to her Milliner: "My dear Madam. I send you the black velvet for Bonnet. I will rely on you for an exquisite Bonnet. Please let me have it by next Monday Eve. Very truly Mary Lincoln." 8vo. Washington, Dec. 8. (1863-4). $35.00

An unusually nice Specimen. Laid in are two interesting contemporary portraits of Mrs. Lincoln, and a two-line endorsement in Lincoln's writing dated 1864.

709. LINCOLN, MRS. MARY. A. L. S. to Secretary Harrington withdrawing her recommendation of one Ellen, to whom Mr. Harrington had given a position, because she "has made use of some expressions which I cannot countenance in one I have recommended to so eligible a place. I design to let her return to N. Y. tomorrow and I am sure if you knew all, you would further my Views. Very respectfully yours, Mrs. Lincoln." One page. 8vo. March 18 (1865). $30.00

710. LINCOLN, MRS. MARY. Interesting A. L. S. written shortly after the President's Death to Secretary Geo. S. Harrington asking a position for her Colored Maid ELIZABETH KECKLEY: "The Woman who is most estimable although colored is very industrious and has just had an interview with Gov. Chase who says he will see you and I am sure it rests with you. She is very unobtrusive and will perform her duties faithfully. I do not believe I am making a vain request of you and I will not trouble you again." Etc. 3 pages. 16mo, on black bordered Executive Mansion Paper with Monogram L in Black. Washington, 1865. $45.00

A Fine Letter written at a most Tragic Time. It was this Elizabeth Keckley who wrote "Behind the Scenes, or Thirty Years a Slave, and Four Years in the White House."

711. LINCOLN, MRS. MARY. Interesting A. L. S. to Mr. Williamson, mentioning the inflamed condition of her eyes, and the positive instructions of her physician not to use them in any way—"I am disobeying his orders for a moment . . . My son and myself remember the gardeners so kindly—that we will both sign the document you sent. No one loses anything by my Silence, for this is a very gloomy Winter to me. I fear you will be unable to read this as I am almost unable to see." 2 pages. (Chicago), Jan. 9, 1867. $35.00

712. LINCOLN, MRS. MARY. A. L. S. to a Mr. A. Williamson regarding one of her dresses she wished to be given to his Daughter and referring to her ill health and limited means. "I wish we all could be unmindful of our daily necessities, by having sufficient to live upon. There is no more expensive place than Chicago. I am writing, with a fever on me, after a chill—and against my positive promise given my physician. So in the future, my silence by all Friends, I hope will be understood. I remain truly your Friend, Mrs. L——." On Mourning Paper. 4 pages. 4to. Chicago, Nov. 10, 1867. $35.00

713. LINCOLN, MRS. MARY. A. L. S. to Mr. A. Williamson regarding some dresses for his daughter. "Believe me my disappointment is far greater than your own can possibly be that I have not been able this Christmas to send the two Dresses I intended doing. When I can possibly see my Articles from New York my promise will assuredly be remembered. So no more until then. Truly your Friend, Mrs. L——." 1 page. 8vo. (Chicago), Dec. 30, 1867. $30.00

714. LINCOLN, MRS. MARY. Long and extremely Characteristic A. L. S. on deep mourning paper. "My very dear Friend. A late London paper published about two days since announcing that Mrs. Lincoln, the widow of President Lincoln, was soon to be married to the Baden Count,—with an unpronounceable name that I could not attempt to remember. The same evil spirit . . . is evident again at work and in the most malignant form too—probably anticipating that by this time Congress might be turning their attention to my sad and unfortunate case . . . In my indignation—last evening, if means had allowed I would have sent a telegram to our good friend Col. Forney that 'Mrs. Lincoln was unacquainted with such a person.'" Etc., etc. Signed "Mary Lincoln." 4 pages. 8vo. Frankfort on Maine, 1869. $50.00

A PAINTER'S IMPRESSION OF LINCOLN.

732. MARCHANT, E. D. Historical Portrait Painter. Executed the Portrait of President Lincoln for the Council Chamber of Independence Hall, Philadelphia. Very interesting A. L. S. to Daniel Huntington the Artist describing from Memory his Recollections of Lincoln's appearance. "The eyes of Prest. Lincoln were of bluish grey or rather greyish blue; for without being positive, the blue ray was always visible. His Complexion was sallow of the brown shade. His hair of a very dark brown. I would be glad to aid you in other traits, but, though indelibly impressed on my mind during a residence of four months at the White House, they are the most difficult to DESCRIBE that I ever knew. With an Individuality the most strongly marked such was the flexibility of his Features or of the Muscles governing them, he was seldom twice alike. Hence the endless variety observable in the photographs we have of him. Of the white Cravat I can speak more distinctly. He rarely wore it, but in some instances had done so, among others at some weddings. This decided me to adopt it for its better pictorial effect. The scant neck-tie he usually wore seemed in his case, utterly unsuited to a portrait; its sharp black line, like a gash seemed to sever the Head from the body, it appalled me." 3 pp. 8vo, with envelope. without Lincoln? Where was hope with Lincoln Murdered? Where is Holy Ground? If anywhere it is where man freely dies for his Fellow Man. That Sublime Privilege was the Crown of Lincoln's Fame. And we of the Loyal Legion and our Comrades of the Grand Army can reverently thank God that we were permitted to stand by Lincoln in the deadly Crisis of our Nation's History."

799. MILITARY REVIEW of the Campaign in Virginia and Maryland under Gens. Fremont, Banks, McDowell, Pope, Halleck and GEORGE B. McCLELLAN, in 1862. By F. A. Petersen. 2 parts. 8vo, original wrappers. New York. Tousey and Dexter. 1862. $15.00

A very Violent Copperhead Attack upon Lincoln's War Policy, reviewing McClellan's operations until his Removal by Lincoln. One of the Author's closing remarks read: "People in England, in France and in Russia who have had a Cromwell, two Napoleons and Striletsers are astonished. They wonder that McClellan at the head of 150,000 men devotedly attached to him surrounded by his Friends, obeyed the order of the President, INSTEAD OF MARCHING TO WASHINGTON AND DEPOSING HIM AND HIS ADVISERS. These people do not know the patriot McClellan."

Dubois was chosen President, Hon. Stephen T. Logan, William F. Elkins, Elijah Hales (and others) Vice Presidents Hon. John T. Stuart came forward and addressed the audience condoling with them upon the deep grief which has befallen the American Nation, and relating some interesting Circumstances connected with his last interview with the President. The Committee after retiring for a few moments reported the following Resolutions. Whereas we have learned by telegraph from the City of Washington of the Assassination of President Lincoln and whereas WE HIS NEIGHBORS AND FRIENDS REGARD HIS DEATH AS A GREAT AND IRREPARABLE NATIONAL CALAMITY; WHEREAS IT IS FITTING THAT THOSE WHO KNEW HIM BEST IN LIFE SHOULD EXPRESS THEIR DEEP DISTRESS AT HIS UNTIMELY DEATH BE IT RESOLVED; Therefore that we his Neighbors and Friends without distinction of Party, forgetting all past differences of Opinion unite in Solemn Accord in the expression of our deep sympathy for his Family, his Friends, our Country, and the Peace of Mankind for his untimely Death in the hour of our Country's Struggle, when was to be called into exercise those qualities of Head which endeared him as a Man and made him distinguished as a President. Resolved that since the unexampled Success of our Arms we have with Patriotic Pride beheld Indication upon the part of Mr. Lincoln of a Policy of Restoration and Union in the Consummation of which the Peace of the Country and the wonted National Integrity would again be restored to our Stricken Union.*" etc., with final Resolution that the City which had long been his Home should receive his Remains for interment. The Resolutions cover 4 quarto pages and the names of the Illinois and Kentucky Delegates. 2 pages.

AN ORIGINAL ILLINOIS-LINCOLN ASSOCIATION DOCUMENT OF SUPREME HISTORICAL IMPORTANCE.

903. OGLESBY, RICHARD JAMES. Senator from Illinois, Brig-Gen. in the Civil War and many years associated with Abraham Lincoln. Very fine Autograph Letter, to his friend Thomas Donaldson, entirely on Lincoln and politics in Illinois. "My dear Old Friend. Early in the Spring of 1858, Circuit Court was being held in Urbana, Ill. MR. LINCOLN was attending the Court in his Annual Round of the Circuit. I went up from Decatur in a buggy with a lawyer friend to the Court. While there the Question arose of a Candidate for Congress in our District, composed of 15 counties running from Decatur and south along the Wabash River and South-East Illinois about 100 or 125 miles. A strong Democratic Region interspersed with a good many Old Whigs, nearly all of whom were from the Southern States, and all both Democrats and Whigs were rather pro-Slavery in feeling, or more correctly stated were very much opposed to Abolitionism and very suspicious of Republicanism. Douglas had helped them to make the case as bad as possible black Republicans. The District was, or had been since 1854, about 4,000 to 5,000 Democratic Majority. It was not very good territory for Republican Success. A good many of us were together at Urbana Anti-Nebraska Men, Republicans and Anti-Slavery Old Whigs. I had been, as had MR. LINCOLN of course Anti-Slavery Old Whigs." etc. In one of our walks together the subject of going frankly before the people and trusting to their good sense and good heart, when frankly and openly appealed to in behalf of Justice, Right and Liberty. MR. LINCOLN, in his mild, stern way said: "REMEMBER, DICK, TO KEEP CLOSE TO THE PEOPLE. THEY ARE ALWAYS RIGHT AND WILL MISLEAD NO ONE." I have given you the substance of the circumstances that brought forth the Remark you referred to and which I now give to you correctly. 2 pages, 8vo, with envelope. Elk Hart, Ill. 985. PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN on the Battle Field of Illinois. Pamphlet No. I. "The pen is more powerful than the Sword"—"Let Hercules himself, do what he may, The Cat will mew, the dog will have his day." 8vo, sewed. Printed for the People of both Hemispheres, in the Military Tract Journal Office. MACOMB: Illinois (1860).

Unique Lincoln item unnoticed by all his Bibliographers. Although claiming to be the First of an intended Series of 24 Pamphlets to be issued for the "Edification of the Enemies of the Republic" it is hardly probable that any others appeared. This was issued shortly before the meeting of the Republican Convention at Chicago at which Lincoln was unanimously nominated for the Presidency. The writer of this rare piece, Doctor Ricardo, advocated for the Republican Ticket JOHN C. FREMONT for President and ABRAHAM LINCOLN for Vice-President. He says: "I beg of you my Republican Friends, don't spoil the name of Abraham Lincoln as Candidate for President; because I am quite sure Mr. Lincoln cannot be elected President, as I well believe Mr. Lincoln will be a successful Candidate for Vice-President in the same ticket with John C. Fremont." The three preliminary pages give an account of "The Child's Comedy, or the Gambols of the Monkeys at the Charleston Convention" in which Stephen A. Douglas is referred to "a good big belled Hermaphrodite—the Balaam's Ass of the Democratic Party."

Sheridan had never voted as he was an Army Officer, but he understood under the Laws of Ohio a Ohio Soldier could vote, and that there was to be somewhere in the camp among the Ohio Soldiers a Polling Place. He soon learned it was at my Headquarters. (34th Reg.*

O. V. I. Cedar Creek Shenandoek Valley) so he came over the day before and talked about it I passed the word around that Sheridan and Gen. Crook would vote about 9 o'clock and perhaps a 1,000 Soldiers and two brassbands were on hand. The polling place was a wagon and 3 non-commissioned Officers were judge and two young fellows clerks. I said I'd vote first so as to show Crook and Sheridan how it was done. I was an old Voter they were Greenhorns. Then Sheridan stepped up. He was a little embarrassed for all the men were looking at him. He looked at the Judge, the Judge stared at him. 'Your name Sir!' said the Judge with infinite dignity. Sheridan spoke up 'Philip H. Sheridan' 'In what State do you vote' asked the Judge impressively. 'In Ohio' Sheridan replied 'In what County' 'Perry County'..... In speaking with Sheridan after General Crook said with feeling: 'This is my first Vote: I don't ever expect to vote again, but I did want to vote for Old Abe.'

Also a splendid letter from the author to Dr. Shelton Mackenzie, at the time one of the most important literary characters in New York, saying: "My Dear Sir—I send you by mail the sheets of An Ode which I have just written on the Death of the President and which I have taken the greatest pains with, making it as perfect as I could for my own sake and that of the terrible and great occasion. It cost me four days' hard and telling work—such as I hope not to pass through again for years—four days in the midst of last week—THE MOST MOMENTOUS PERIOD in OUR ANNALS SINCE THE DISCOVERY OF THE NEW WORLD. I think you will like my honest attempt to celebrate the fall of a good man (whom I never liked in my life, and from whose policy, in many respects I differ now). You will recognize my original—the Horatian Ode of Andrew Marvell 'Upon Cromwell's Return from Ireland,' a noble production in a magnificent measure, which scarcely admits of weakness, it is so simple and so compact. If you can say a good word for me in the 'Press' do so; if not, don't. In any event, yours in haste, R. H. Stoddard Custom House, N. Y. April 18, '65." Also a letter from Stoddard to C. H. Hart, the Lincoln Bibliographer, dated January 21, '67, telling him he was unable to lay his hand upon a copy of the ode at that time, and says: "The Edition was 1500 copies as far as I remember. I know it cost me (the verse) 3 days' hard work and that it paid me nary a red."

Inserted also is Stoddard's Original Manuscript of the first eleven stanzas of the Ode, showing a few variations from the printed text. Unique and grand Lincoln memorial.

"THE FAME OF LINCOLN."

1234. WHITE, HORACE. Former Editor of the Chicago "Tribune" and of the New York "Evening Post." Original Autograph Manuscript entitled "The Fame of Lincoln" probably spoken for him at one of the Lincoln Dinners. Commences: "Abraham Lincoln at the age of 38 took his seat in the House of Representatives, December 1847. Among the Men of wide Repute at that time serving in the Senate were Daniel Webster, John C. Calhoun, Thomas Corwin, Thomas H. Benton, Jefferson Davis and Stephen A. Douglas. In the House were John Quincy Adams, Robert Toombs, Alex. H. Stephens, David Wilmot, Howell Cobb and Andrew Johnson. NOBODY THEN COULD HAVE FORESEEN THE FAME OF THIS AWKWARD NEW COMER FROM ILLINOIS WOULD EVENTUALLY SURPASS THAT OF ALL HIS FELLOW MEMBERS OF CONGRESS. That it has done so would seem to be established by the Amount of Literature accumulated and now circulated concerning him. It is probably safe to say that this is a larger amount of Literature than has been produced concerning all Mr. Lincoln's fellow Members of the 30th Congress taken together with President Polk and all his Cabinet Officers added." Signed in full. 2 pages folio. New York. 1906. $25.00

WHITMAN'S MAGNIFICENT EULOGY ON LINCOLN.

1243. WHITMAN, WALT. Original Autograph Manuscript being the Commencement of his Famous Address on Lincoln. Large folio. N. D. $250.00

"How often since that dark and chilly Saturday—that dripping April day, now fifteen years bygone—my heart has enterain'd the dream, the wish, to give of Abraham Lincoln's death its own special thought and memorial. Yet now the sought for opportunity offers. I find my notes incompetent (Why, for truly profound themes, is statement so idle? why does the right phrase never offer?) and the fit tribute I dreamed of waits unprepared as ever.

"It belongs to these States in their entirety—not the North only but the South, perhaps most tenderly and devoutly to the South of all, for there really this man's birth-stock. Why should I not say that thence his manliest traits, his universality, his canny easy ways and words upon the surface, his inflexible determination and courage at heart. Have you never realized it my friends, that Lincoln, though grafted on the West, is essentially, in personnel and character, a Southern contribution?"

A MOST EXTENSIVE AND REMARKABLE COLLECTION OF CIVIL WAR AND LINCOLN ENVELOPES

1275. WAR ENVELOPES. An extremely fine and very interesting Collection of over 3000 Civil War Envelopes; the great Majority being issued by Sympathizers of the Federal Cause, the Rest being the Product of Individuals fervently supporting the Confederate Government. Amongst them are hundreds of portraits of LINCOLN, SEWARD, DOUGLAS, ELLSWORTH, WINFIELD SCOTT, GENERAL LYON, McCLELLAN, GEN. WOOL, GEORGE WASHINGTON, who was much used by both sides, JEFFERSON DAVIS, BEAUREGARD, FREMONT, BROWNELL, the Avenger of Ellsworth, GENS. PRENTISS, CORCORAN, ROBERT ANDERSON SIEGEL, BUTLER, DIX, CAPTAIN DUPONT, BURNSIDE, HALLECK, FOOTE, BUELL, WORDEN OF THE MERRIMAC, "PARSON" BROWNLOW, BLENKER, ROSECRANZ, BANKS, SHERMAN, PORTER, FARRAGUT, GRANT and other well known soldiers in the war. Pictorial Plates of Each of the Southern and Northern States with their Arms and Emblems are included with similar designs of almost every Large City. Hundreds of Regimental Camp-Scenes, Battle Incidents and Naval Engagements are also comprised, all brilliantly colored, and many of them accompanied by Contemporary Newspaper Cuttings in prose and verse, more or less appropriate to the Illustration. The 150 portraits of Lincoln are particularly interesting and of considerable Historical Value being nearly all original, uncopyrighted designs by the publishers. The Death of COLONEL ELLSWORTH—or Assassination as it was then considered, is represented by many specimens and is no doubt a complete Collection of all the Ellsworth pieces issued at the time.

The portraits of Grant depict him with a Beard like a Patriarch while Gen. Sherman's Face shows as clean shaved as possible. Quite a large number of the Envelopes bear the head of one of the Federal Commanders surrounded by a Map of the Field of his Operations. The intensely bitter expression of Sectional Feeling is abundantly displayed in the very large number of Caricatures belittling the Confederate Army and its Heads. A Prime Favorite being the hanging of Jefferson Davis from the Gallows. All neatly arranged in 3 Albums of tinted paper. One folio and 2 vols. 4to. 1860-65. $300.00

A Unique Collection which from a presentation inscription shows that it was completed before 1867 so that many Rarities were preserved which have since then completely disappeared.
